Individuals executing a 10b5-1 trading plan should keep the following important considerations in mind:

- (1) 10b5-1 trading plans should be approved by the compliance officer or general counsel of the individual's company.
- (2) A 10b5-1 trading plan may require a cessation of trading activities at times when lockups may be necessary to the company (i.e., secondary offerings, pooling transactions, etc.).
- (3) A 10b5-1 trading plan does not generally alter the restricted stock or other regulatory requirements (e.g., Rule 144, Section 16, Section 13) that may otherwise be applicable.
- (4) 10b5-1 trading plans that are modified or terminated early may weaken or cause the individual to lose the benefit of the affirmative defense.
- (5) Public disclosure of 10b5-1 trading plans (e.g., via press release) may be appropriate for some individuals.
- (6) Most companies will permit 10b5-1 trading plans to be entered into only during open window periods.
- (7) Morgan Stanley, as well as some issuers, imposes a mandatory waiting period between the execution of a 10b5-1 trading plan and the first sale pursuant to the plan.
