January Happenings: What Have We Been Up To?

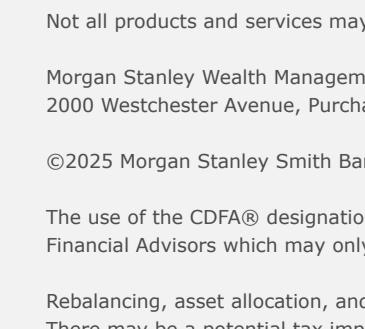

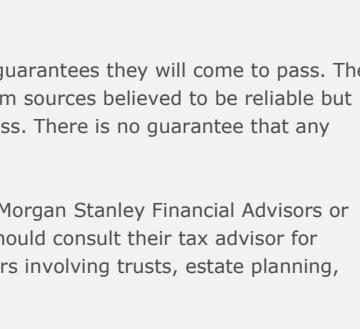

The Bouslog family has been having too much fun avoiding the arctic tundra recently. Coffee, donuts, and indoor games galore.

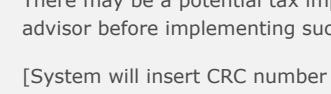

They managed to sneak a quick photo session in over Christmas (when the weather was nice!)

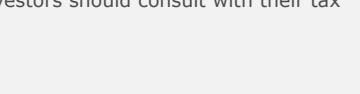

Good thing the cold never bothered them anyway!

Raegan caught a beautiful sunrise photo before work in mid-January!

While avoiding the cold, Lisette got back into baking. Nothing like a good creme brulee!

Priscilla and Steve spent a chilly weekend in Chicago...

Reagan and Peter's daughter, Reese, jumped a personal best of 5'9" in the high jump at an indoor track meet at the beginning of January...a great start to her junior year!

Every year Tom cooks up some Hoppin John on New Year's Day. Need to eat black eyed peas on NYD for good luck!
