

Neil Mitchell

Managing Director, Private Wealth Management, Private Wealth Advisor, Alternative Investments Director

Alternative Investments can play a significant role in your asset allocation. As an Alternative Investments Director, I can help allocate Alternative Investments into your portfolio if appropriate. The Alternative Investments Director designation was developed for Morgan Stanley Advisors who meet the minimum criteria requirements and have significantly incorporated Alternative Investments into their practice. With this designation, I can provide clients with further guidance, insights and thought leadership about the Alternative Investments asset class and strategies provided by Morgan Stanley Wealth Management.
