

The Monahan Group October 2025 Newsletter

[Client Preferred Name]

As we settle into October, a month that brings both reflection and preparation, it's a good time to take stock of the changes shaping the financial landscape. In this month's newsletter, we're featuring the latest On The Market insights and recent episodes from Morgan Stanley's Thoughts On The Market podcast, offering timely perspectives on what's driving today's economy.

We're also sharing an article discussing why now may be an ideal moment to reconsider money market funds as the Federal Reserve begins cutting rates.

And since October is Cybersecurity Awareness Month, we've included a link to Morgan Stanley's Security Center—a valuable resource to help you stay safe and informed in an increasingly digital world.

As always, if you have any questions or would like to discuss any of these topics further, please don't hesitate to reach out.
