

June Newsletter

Welcome to our June Newsletter!

As June settles in and summer officially begins, it's a timely moment to pause and take stock—of your goals, your plans, and what you want the second half of the year to look like. With midyear approaching, many people find it helpful to revisit priorities, check progress against key milestones, and make a few proactive adjustments before calendars fill up with travel, family events, and summer activities.

In this June edition, we're sharing a mix of timely, easy-to-digest reads to support confident decision-making. You'll find a midyear perspective on the economy and markets, a look at what's shaping a broader IPO environment, and a practical guide on cybersecurity for seniors that families can use right away. We're also including a lifestyle lens on how households are thinking about spending—plus a few seasonal favorites to help you make the most of summer gatherings and celebrations.

And because June leads straight into Fourth of July season, we're rounding things out with fun, summer-ready content—think Fourth of July recipes and BBQ party ideas to spark inspiration for your next cookout.
